

Environmental sustainability, ICT Initiative and Employee Productivity award 2016

ONGC Videsh wins Governance Now Awards

ONGC Videsh received awards for Environmental sustainability, ICT Initiative and Employee Productivity in Miniratna-I category at the recently concluded 4th edition of Governance Now PSU Awards 2016. In a glittering function held on 23rd December 2016, Shri Ram Vilas Paswan, Union Minister of Food and Public Distribution presided over the function and presented the awards, in presence of Shri Jeetendra Kapoor, Legendary Actor and Shri Vinit Goenka, Member IT taskforce, Ministry of Shipping, Road Transport and Highways. Shri Babul Supriyo, Minister of State for Heavy Industries and Public Enterprises joined in the celebration later on.

Shri P.K. Rao, Director (Operations) received the Environmental sustainability award on behalf of ONGC Videsh, accompanied by Shri Ashok Maithani, Head Corporate Planning & Strategy and Shri Arun Mittal, Head HSE & Risk Management. This award has been bestowed upon ONGC Videsh for abiding with the Health, Safety & Environmental laws, regulations & guidelines of the country of operation and following best practices in environmental sustainability.

Shri P.K. Rao, also received the ICT initiative award on behalf of ONGC Videsh. This award has been bestowed upon ONGC Videsh for implementation of various Information and Communication Technology initiatives and creating a digital workplace environment with multidisciplinary strategy addressing people, process and technology.

The third award in ONGC Videsh's kitty was the Employee Productivity award which was also received by Shri P.K. Rao on behalf of ONGC Videsh. ONGC Videsh projects are spread over 17 Countries has its own set of complexities in terms of geopolitical, geological, fiscal, environmental, language, climatic issues etc. ONGC Videsh with its small team of around 340 employees is performing in a highly competitive international oil and gas sector by contending with the best in the industry, and this award was a recognition of the same.